Guidelines to the form

1. Personal data

Enter your full name and address. If you do not have a Norwegian National Identity Number (Social Security Number) or D-number, you must contact the customs authorities and obtain a TRK number (Customs Registered Customer) - see further information at www.toll.no/.

2. Volume of personal and household goods and means of transport

* Total number of pieces of personal and household goods: A piece is defined as contents of the package and external packaging. It can be a single item, a box or a suitcase, but also a container.

* Number of pieces included with my entry into Norway: Remember to list jewellery, watches, bags and other expensive items that are carried as luggage or worn on the body on entry into the country.

* Describe all personal and household effects and clearly indicate what you bring with you when entering and what will be sent by carrier:

Attach a list of all the items you have with you. Specify capital goods and other expensive items such as PCs, TVs, refrigerators and similar in the consignment. You can summarise other items under general categories such as books, household items, bedding and clothing. In the list, indicate whether the items are used or new.

Please note that what you specify when you import personal and household effects etc. may also be important in other contexts, i.e. in connection with any insurance settlement in the event of damage to the items in the consignment. If a transport company is used, we request that a packing list delivered to the carrier or freight forwarder is included.

3. Dutiable goods

If you have goods subject to customs duties, you must state this.

You will not be granted duty and VAT exemption for vehicles, aircraft, work equipment, food, alcohol or tobacco products. The same applies to new goods. These are goods you must clear in the usual way with payment of VAT, and any customs and excise duties.

Exceptions from this may apply to goods that are carried personally as luggage:

New items within a limit of NOK 6.000,-. Mer informasjon om verdigrensen. (Ctrl-Click for more info. Then click on English at top of page).

* Do you have edible consumables with you? Se mer informasjon om næringsmidler. (Ctrl-Click for more info. Then click on English at top of page).

If you import edible consumables from outside the EU / EEA, the country must be specified.

4. Weapons and ammunition

* Do you have weapons or ammunition? Se informasjon om definisjon av våpen. (Ctrl-Click for more info. Then click on English at top of page).

If you are going to import weapons or ammunition, you must have a permit from the police, which you must enclose with this declaration.

NB: Pepper spray, electroshock weapons and Batanga knives are examples of objects that are considered weapons according to the Firearms Act (these goods may be allowed abroad, but are forbidden to import into Norway).

5. Animals

* Do you have animals?

When you move to Norway from abroad, you can take your pet with you without paying duty and VAT. You must contact the Norwegian Food Safety Authority to check for any restrictions (i.e. requirements for pet care and vaccines). Read more about importing animals at: Les mer om import av dyr på Mattilsynet.no. (Ctrl-Click for more info. Then click on English at top of page).

6. Other goods / items subject to restrictions

* Do you have items subject to special permits?

If you carry items that are regulated by other legislation that stipulates import restrictions on the product, you must state this. Items with restrictions can i.e. be: Endangered animal and plant species (CITES), food (including potatoes), medicines / herbs, plants, as well as cultural monuments and art treasures. Se utfyllende liste over restriksjonsbelagte varer. (Ctrl-Click for more info. Then click on English at top of page).

Contact the Customs or the responsible authority to investigate which additional requirements must be met / permission / permit you must have to import the item.

9. Additional information

If you bring currency and other means of payment that exceed NOK 25,000, this must be reported to the Customs Authority. Les mer om valuta. (Ctrl-Click for more info. Then click on English at top of page).

10. Declaration

* The declaration form must be signed by the applicant.
